

James H. Finucane Jr.

June 2, 1939 - August 13, 2025

James Holliday Finucane, Jr., was born on June 2, 1939 and went home to be with his Lord and Savior Jesus Christ on August 13, 2025, in San Antonio, Texas. He was blessed with 86 years of life. Jim was fondly known by friends and family as “Jimmy”. He honorably served in the United States Air Force and was a life-long member of the Oklahoma Masons. He was proud to be a lifetime member of Plumbers & Pipefitters Local 142, and of his accomplishment of being a teacher in air conditioning and refrigeration at St. Phillip’s College.

Jim was preceded in death by his parents; his wife of 52 years Rose; his son Jay; and his brother Danny Lee. He is survived by his wife of 11 years Margie Finucane; his loving daughter Terrie Leonard and husband Randy; his son Michael Finucane and wife Jennifer; his sister Mary Ann Finucane; sister-in-law Marian Hubbard; grandchildren Jayna Finucane, Brandon Padier, Gavin and Eliana Finucane, and numerous nieces, nephews, cousins, extended family, church family, and a host of friends near and far.

Jim was an avid fisherman and outlived most of his fishing buddies; which worked great for Jim’s other pastime of telling stories and jokes - his buddies not being here to refute those “fish tales.”

Jim’s faith in Christ was the cornerstone of his life and he was ordained as a Deacon, a calling he wholeheartedly took on with humility and grace. You could often hear him singing one of his favorite hymns as he worked in his shop or yard.

Jim was known to all as a man of God and his life verse was John 10:10, "The thief comes only to steal, kill and destroy; I (Jesus) have come that they may have life and have it more abundantly."

Serving as pallbearers: James Bynum, Joshua Gilmore, Sheldon Leonard, Glen McCombs, Brandon Padier, C.R. Pullin, Randy Leonard and Clayton Leonard.

“ What can I say about Jimmy Finucane? The Gilmore clan has always been with the Finucane clan. My father, James, worked with Jim's dad in a garage on Florida St in San Antonio. I can say Jim was my mentor. We shared many outings. Jim & my dad worked on cars and trucks for our church. Jim was always there for the Gilmore's & likewise Jim got me interested in HVAC. He was a teacher and friend. We shared many stories. But one was talked about many times. We worked for NE School District. We were at Roosevelt High School. The hallways were blocked by sliding doors. Jim was a jokester. Always playing jokes. One day, he pretended to get his fingers caught in the door & hollered for me. It scared me. Then one day, he did it again & I laughed thinking he was joking again. Then I saw tears in his eyes, as he was in pain as he had really got his fingers caught in the sliding doors this time. Jim & I called each other all of the time. We laughed & cried on our adventures throughout life & prayed for each other often. Jim is now in Heaven looking down and telling all of his friends and family not to mourn for he is no longer in pain. As he once said to me when my father passed, his mission in life is complete. I will miss my friend & mentor & I look forward to the day that I get to see him again in Glory. Love, Larry J. Gilmore

I had a chance to meet Jim after he married my aunt Margie. This man has a heart of gold and he always helped no matter how big or small the problem was. Jim was very true to his self and expressed himself with confidence, trustworthiness and a man full of passion and love for his family and even to those that got a chance to see him not only on his good days but every day the opportunity would arise it was always great to see Jim. You're alive in our hearts and our minds and in eternity with Jesus Jim. God bless you and your family and people who got to meet you.
