

James Brandon Fuglaar Sr.

July 8, 1982 - March 22, 2021

James Brandon Fuglaar, Sr. passed away March 22, 2021. He was born in San Antonio, TX on July 8, 1982. He is survived by his wife, Jennifer and children, Breeze (Melly), James Jr., Wesley and S'vannah; grandchild, Easton Jack; mother-in-law, Linda Patterson, mother Sandy Harriss (Charles), father Jimmy Fuglaar (Sheryl), father Carl Bullard; sisters, Krista Linsley (James), Erica Couch (Trey) and Katelyn Fuglaar, and brother Jay Fuglaar (Amanda). James is also survived by his grandmothers, Mary Summey and Barbara McCauley, many aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews and cousins. He is preceded in death by his grandfather Jack Summey, aunt Karen Summey, grandfather Marshall Fuglaar, niece Kennedy Couch and cousin Patrick Bomba.

James Brandon was one of a kind. He had the ability to fix and build anything including plumbing, construction and electrical, but his passion was welding. He was a welding instructor. He loved teaching his students and co-workers. He also loved fishing, playing golf and riding his motorcycle. He had a great sense of humor. His laughter was loud and obnoxious but contagious. He also loved history and technology. Brandon loved his family deeply and we all love him so much. He will never be forgotten and he will forever be in our hearts.

Brandon knew the love of Jesus, yet he still struggled. He had big dreams and making plans for his future. We have no doubt that Brandon's choice was to live. He fought so hard for years with his depression and addiction until he accidentally passed on. If you or someone you know is dealing with these issues, please get help.

We know Grandpa was waiting for Brandon with open arms and said, "Pilgrim, you are home."

Visitation will be Monday, March 29, 2021 at 2:00 p.m. with a Celebration of Life to begin at 3:00 p.m. at Mission Park Funeral Chapels South. Interment to follow at Mission Burial Park South.
