

James W. (Jim) Gorman Jr.

August 11, 1930 - October 3, 2020

James Ward (Jim) Gorman, Jr. passed away peacefully at his home this week in San Antonio, Texas at the age of 90. He was born in Wichita Falls, Texas on August 11, 1930, the son of James Ward (Wardie) Gorman and wife Ara Pauline (Polly) Gorman. Jim met his future wife, Rowena lone (Tena) Cain while attending the University of Oklahoma. A member of the Phi Gamma Delta fraternity, Jim graduated in 1952 with a B.S. degree in Geology. He married his sweetheart Tena that same year. Through the ROTC Program at the University, Jim began his service in the United States Air Force when he was commissioned as a Second Lieutenant and deployed to serve in the Korean War in 1952-53. He was discharged as a First Lieutenant in 1954.

After returning from active duty, Jim and Tena settled in San Antonio where Jim went to work as a geologist in his father's oil business, the Gorman Drilling Company. During that time, they were blessed with three children: James Ward (Jimmy) Gorman III, David Alan Gorman and Amy lone Gorman Ellis. Jim and Tena recently celebrated their 68th anniversary, of an exemplary marriage of mutual support, dedication, devotion and love.

After the severe downturn in the oil business in 1963, Jim traveled to New York City to study for and obtain his securities license to start a new career with the Wall Street brokerage firm of Dewar, Robertson & Pancoast. He later joined Loeb, Rhoades, Hornblower & Co. and continued his career as a stock broker and respected investment advisor for many years. He had an uncanny sense of timing and anticipation of things to come that served him well both in the investment world and beyond.

Later on, Jim opened his own office for Gorman Enterprises, pursuing business interests in banking, venture capital, farming and ranching, oil and gas and real estate. He enjoyed following the stock market and investing even until his final days. Jim served as a director of the Bexar County National Bank, Cullen Frost Bancshares, Frost National Bank and was the Founding Chairman of the Bank of San Antonio and a Founding Director of the Texas Hill Country Bank. Other business interests and directorships include the Lone Star Brewery, Conroy, Inc. and Kinark Corp.

With equal zeal and enthusiasm, he involved himself in countless philanthropic and community interests with copious outlays of both time and treasure. With his naturally gregarious personality, good humor, authenticity, optimism and down-home wisdom, he made genuine friends here and throughout the world and in all walks of life. He especially loved working with young people, listening to their ideas, encouraging them and mentoring many of them to become successful and respected business leaders. Jim had that rare gift of being able to walk into a room and make everyone in the room feel special and the center of attention. Those who knew him became part of a massive Jim Gorman family, sharing life with one of the most genuine and loving spirits one could ever know, and being all the better for it.

Jim had a particular interest in research and medicine. He was the longest serving Trustee on the Board of Texas Biomedical and a staunch advocate for Texas Biomed and their scientists. He was instrumental in the creation of its Founder's Council and supported Tena when she co-founded the Texas Biomedical Forum 51 years ago. He became an Honorary Lifetime Member of the Christus Santa Rosa Children's Hospital Foundation and Trustee Emeritus of its Endowment Board, a Trustee Emeritus of the Southwest Foundation for Biomedical Research and a Co-Founder, member of the Board of Governors and Trustee of the Cancer Therapy and Research Center. He served in numerous different roles with the San Antonio Medical Foundation, KLRN Public Television, the Harry Jersig Speech/Therapy Center and the Texas Research Park and the Marine Science Institute. Over the years, Jim received the Heart of Gold Award from the American Heart Association, the Bexar County Medical Society Award, and the Ruskin C. Norman M.D. Leadership Award by St. Luke's Hospital.

His reputation and hard work also led to his appointment to serve on various State task forces and statewide commissions: The American Revolution Bicentennial Commission of Texas (Gov. Dolph Briscoe), the Nueces River Authority Commission (Gov. Bill Clements), the Battleship Texas Commission (Gov. Dolph Briscoe) and the Marine Science Institute Advisory Council of the University of Texas at Austin (UT Board of Regents). In 2006, Jim was honored with a Doctorate of Humane Letters degree by the University of the Incarnate Word.

Jim was a man of strong faith and through his relationships in the religious community, both civically and individually, supported a number of local churches and synagogues and enjoyed wonderful friendships with many of the preachers, fathers, priests, rabbis and sisters across the City of San Antonio.

His community and social interests included such organizations as The Argyle, Club Giraud, the Fiesta San Antonio Commission, the Miss Fiesta Pageant, The Farmers Market Commission, the San Antonio Zoological Society, the Sunshine Cottage School for the Deaf, the Rotary Club of San Antonio, Rotary International, the San Antonio Chamber of Commerce, the Sons of the Republic of Texas, the Beethoven Maennerchor, the Order of The Alamo and the San Antonio Country Club. As a member of the Texas Cavaliers, Jim served as Commander in 1972 and as King Antonio in 1973.

Jim was a true outdoorsman with a love for hunting and fishing, especially for white tail bucks in South Texas, speckled trout along the Gulf Coast or hunting dove at the Gorman Ranch in Poteet, Texas with his faithful Black Labrador retriever. He was a world class talent with a shotgun, winning many competitions in Mexico, Italy, Spain and the United States, as well as tryouts for qualifying for the 1980 Olympic Trap Shooting Team. He was a fierce competitor, whether it was a friendly game of tennis, golf (he shot his age at 71), backgammon or bridge.

A staunch supporter of law enforcement and the military, Jim was honored to receive the Department of the Army Commander's Award for Public Service and the Department of the Army's Outstanding Civilian Service Medal. He received the Humanitarian Award in 1999 from the National Conference for Community and Justice.

In business circles, he could produce calm within the storm when things weren't going so well, bring people together, smooth ruffled feathers, inspire and motivate. As a mentor and angel, he could encourage you and help you look within to find the strength, talent and resolve to accomplish your goals and he would help you along the way.

Aside from all the pomp and circumstance, Jim truly was all about people and he touched the lives of so many. There was an incredible personal magnetism that he generated, which made every single person feel cared about and special. He went out of his way to remember every birthday, compliment every achievement, remark on how beautiful you are, what a nice suit you have on, or what great eyes you have. He made it fun to attend a party or event in his presence and you would be happy that you went, recalling afterwards what a good time it was and what a nice guy he is.

Maybe you received a birthday card, or a Valentine, or a phone call from him and it seemed to be just the thing you needed right then, or he was the only person that reached out to you that warmed your heart in that moment. Maybe you were a widow, having just lost your spouse, and he helped you find your way amidst the loneliness, despair and turmoil of such a loss.

One might think the world is dimmer now without Jim. Certainly, a great loss of a really great man that contributed so much and touched so many lives. But it is not dimmer. In fact, it is brighter than ever. Having shared and infused all of us with his light and love, we are now a million candles carrying his legacy forward and making the world a better place.

Jim is survived by his wife, Tena, his son Jimmy, his daughter Amy, six grandchildren, nine great grandchildren, his brother Jack E. Gorman and wife Bebe. He was preceded in death by his son David in 2019.

A special note from Tena:

If you are reading this obituary and the lists of his accomplishments, you won't know the essence of this man, Jim Gorman.

Though his heart was "broken", he had the courage of a lion. Though his faith in the Father was huge, it was expressed in a whisper and the joy he experienced in every friendship.

His handshake was real and the warmth of his smile made you feel good. He used the word "Brother" often and he meant it.

He celebrated life from a special list, in his faithful recognition of “Birthdays and Anniversaries”. So often I heard the words: “Thank you for remembering me.”

Today, Jim would say “Thank you Lord for all my blessings” and the Lord would say “Good Job, Brother”.

This is not an obituary, but a thank you note to a remarkable husband, father, grandfather, great-grandfather and best friend: My Buddy.

“ To the Gorman Family.....

growing up in San Antonio , I spent a lot of time with my dad, Bill Forney, hanging out in the Milam Building and NBC Bank bldg. My dad was an independent oilman and officed in the Milan Bldg for years from the late 1940's to the late 1960's.....one of the things my dad always talked about was Jimmy Gorman and how much he respected him. He also mentioned Wardy (?) Gorman whom I assume was Jimmy's dad.....the connection here was the oil business and the University of Oklahoma, where the 6 children in my family went to college.

My dad had been from Kingfisher , OK until WW II when he ended up in S.A.

It is sad to learn of names and individuals I looked up to now getting up into their 90's.

People like Jim Gorman are sort of like the Greatest Generation to me.

Feel so fortunate that you all had him in your lives so long.

My dad passed away in 1985.

May the Lord take him in his arms and look after him forever. with all respect.....

“ We said goodbye to my beloved grandfather, my “Papa” Monday.

He was truly a special man & will be missed by many for so many reasons. He was someone who left a lasting impression. He cared deeply for people & made everyone who came in contact with him feel special & important- whether he was meeting a future president, a general, a nurse or a maintenance man. He was so intentional & engaging with everyone.

As his granddaughter I got to experience the gift of knowing this feeling my whole life. I have never known the world without his sweet smile or the little twinkle in his eye when he was letting you in on a secret...like getting extra scoops of ice cream.

He will be remembered for many things. For all of his generosity & kindness, supporting the health community & many hospitals. His service both in the military & the community as a leader. As a business man who was sharp as a tack & made a great success at whatever he put his hand to.

But I will remember the little whistle he gave when calling me on the phone so I would know it was him on the other line. I will forever cherish the way he played with me as a little girl & cooked pretend turtle soup with me in the kitchen. How he held my hand & showed me how to hunt for Easter eggs & let me practice driving in his fancy car as I was getting my permit. I was so nervous & excited, but his confidence put me right at ease. He took care of those around him & always gave so much. He had the biggest heart you've ever seen.

But above all, I will remember his devotion & love for my grandmother. It was such a beautiful thing to behold. When I asked Papa who had the greatest influence on his life, he answered his wife, Tena, without one second to ponder or one ounce of hesitation. Their commitment, partnership & love story was like something out of a movie & an example to us all.

I will miss you deeply, Papa. Thank you for so many treasured memories & life experiences that shaped me. Thank you for how you made me feel so uniquely special. For every Valentine, for every birthday wish, for every phone call whistle & for the legacy of love & generosity that will be passed down for generations to come. We love you.

“Tina, I was so so sorry to hear of Jim's passing. I feel that the world has lost an exceptional man. My thoughts go way back to helping an employee that worked for Jim find a house. I think we both agreed that was an interesting situation. I have seen you two at different functions. I thing the last time was at a King's party. Tall, handsome, thoughtful and made me feel like we were friends for years. You were a wonderful caregiver. He was very lucky and blessed to have found you to share with him in life's journey. We have really lost a special person. With the state of our country right now it is even more because we should all strive to be the kind of person he was.

My thoughts are with you now. Please add me to the list of friends that are praying for you while going through this sad time.

“ Many people can say they have had great mentors in their lives but only a lucky few can say that Mr. Gorman was one of them. I was lucky enough to always have Mr. Gorman in my corner rooting me on. Whatever academic or personal journey I was on, I always knew Mr. and Mrs. Gorman would be just a congratulatory phone call away.

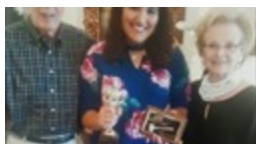

Mr. Gorman was such a kind man, his smile lit up the room and could even be heard through the telephone. The world will undoubtedly be a darker place without that light but it will forever be a better place because of the legacy he leaves behind. To know Mr. Gorman was to know the closest thing to a Saint on earth.

He was kind to everyone he met. He always asked how you were doing and he truly cared about your answer. He was successful in his careers but was always humble. He never talked about his successes but instead asked how he could help you succeed. He is who I want to be when I grow up. His character and values are those that I hope I can continue to live by as long as he did.

Although I am saddened to know that I will never hear him say “I’m proud of you Lola” or get to share with him my latest good news, I am blessed to know that he now looks down on me from heaven.

Mr. Gorman, I will miss you more than words can ever describe. Thank you for being one of the best role models I have ever had. You changed my life more than you ever know. I would not be who I am today without your help. I love you and can’t wait for the day we meet again. To the Gorman family, my deepest condolences. May your beautiful memories with Mr. Gorman carry you through these tough times.

I remember many years ago when our beloved Steinway piano in the Dorn Room needed to be brought back to life and we reached out to Mr. and Mrs. Gorman, who had previously donated the piano to the Argyle many decades prior. “ By the time I was in my Fiesta prime, Jim was already legendary and so highly revered that I was honored to merely be in his presence. And it was on those occasions that I learned of his keen ability to make everyone feel so at ease.

Jim was President of the Order of the Cascaron the year I was inducted. When the festivities were finished and our lives were all returning to normal, Jim did something so typical of him. I soon received in the mail a photo of Cascaron members including, for the first time, myself with a hand-written note signed by Jim welcoming me to the group.
