

James Russell Hull

November 21, 1957 - June 27, 2017

James had many great loves in his life, A wonderful, joyful love for his family, his friends, and his animal companions. He leaves behind many of those that he loved with a passion, and would have protected with his life. He is survived by his mother, Leota Virginia Hull his brother Bryson Hull, the three great loves of his life... his wife, Alice Braddy, Cheryl York, and Brenda Van Matre Hodges. He is also survived by many children, some that were by birth and others that were not, but were all his children, Tonya Holeman, Mary Lue Van Matre, Jessica Kittridge and Ben Nelson, Laura and Chris Dunahugh, Traisha and Anthony Eggleston, Travis Meyer, Crystal Miller, and Skylar. There are many, many grandchildren, more than I can list – but I’m going to write one in particular that was his great buddy – Thomas Owen Mann. He had wonderful friends, that were just as much a part of his family as his kinfolk were. These include Eddie Holt – his brother by another mother, his “sis”, Vickie Bonham Shields, and so many more that he loved with his whole heart. He loved his animal friends, Scooter, Venus, Sammy, his beloved cat Grace, and many more that have gone on to the Rainbow Bridge and were waiting for their friend and father to come home, and the ones that will miss him now – Rikki, Puck, Mo, Mama Cat and even Fat Cat Dusty, Winston...and every dog and cat and critter that had the pleasure of meeting him!

He is also survived by numerous Aunts, Uncles, Cousins, again, too numerous to mention.

He was preceded in death by his father, John Henry Hull, His son John Marshall Hull, and a granddaughter, Izabel Diane Hull, and by two friends that he thought of often and always grieved for – Isidor Kotzur, and Vicki Bruce. He also had a great love for many other things in life – He loved bull riding – he never met a bull he didn't like! He was an excellent gymnast, starting in his very early years. He also spoke of working in the oilfield when he was younger, and loved the job completely He was very proud of our “place in the country”, which he worked hard to have and worked hard on, to make a good home, for the two of us. James was interested in Politics, World Issues, Places, People, you name it – he was probably interested in it! He loved guns, and hunting! He was a True Patriot, that would have laid his life down for his country and for his fellow citizens. He believed that our Constitutional Rights were the most important things that we have to stand on in this country and should never be thrown away. James loved to read, and always wished he had more time to finish just one more book!

We love you and will miss you always, until we're with you again! He's given 'em hell in the hereafter! No sittin' on a cloud and playin' a harp for James Russell Hull!

Requiem For A Viking

The Gods saw that you were tired and raised you up in their hands.
They put you on the wings of the Valkyries, as a true warrior and hero.
And took you home to Valhalla.
To carry on, free and strong and brave,
And forever watchful of weaker souls.
