“ Jim and I go back to our first college days at San Antonio College in the 60's. Those were exciting times and we did get excited. We also spent time at the family home at the lake where we drank a few Pearls and did a little skiing. Next, we were in the same Air Force flight and were lucky enough to be assigned at Wilford Hall. As time passed we would not visit as often but when we did it was memorable, just like that great laugh and smile.
