“ To Lt James Shappie,
Sorry to hear you passed. 😞 It was a pleasure to have you as one of my Lts on the Guard Force out at Camp S. I learned quite a bit from you about how to handle stuff out there when I arrived. You were definitely one of the most dedicated and caring guards. God bless you.

“ Manny,
This is sad news for me! James was always someone I could depend on and was fun to hang around with.
It was an Honor and Privilege to serve with him on Tuesdays. I miss all you great American Veterans!!
Give Opal my condolences and I will have her in my prayers!!!

Respectfully
CSM "T" MSD Tuesday Squad.

“ We have lost a most remarkable member of MSD.

James Shappie was very dedicated to the mission of MSD. He had an excellent sense of humor and I personally enjoyed his sharp wit!

As a member of the MSD Color Guard, James Shappie participated in numerous patriotic and civic events. Events such as presenting the Colors for the Annual MSD Banquets, VA Sponsored Fischer House Fundraisers at area golf clubs, the Annual SAHA Golden Gala and Senior Expo at the Henry B. Gonzalez Convention Center, Saint Patrick Day Parades, honoring resident military veterans at area assisted living centers and retirement homes and more! See a few attached photos.

His involvement with the MSD Color Guard helped with recruiting, fundraising for MSD and community awareness of the mission of the Fort Sam Houston Memorial Services Detachment.

James Shappie assumed command of the MSD Color Guard on 6 July 2018.

May God always be with James Shappie and his family.
