“ It has been four years since James began his greatest journey, one that would top all his many travels here on earth. He enjoyed seeing all of Gods creations and now he enjoys the Creator himself, we miss our friend James every day but are thankfull for all the great memories and love that James shared with us through our journey of life. We will meet again my friend. Bruce Haley

“ Sadly, I just heard of James' passing. My heart and condolences go out to his family. I always regretted not keeping in touch with James I carry fond memories of us working on cars, projects, water skiing, and just genuinely having fun. The World should not keep losing good, humble people like James. May God bless you friend, as well as your wife Karen and Children who have suffered a great loss. Smile down on us James

“ To the Starling family: James will be greatly missed here on earth. He is a one of a kind, uniquely, special creation of the Lord, that is very beloved by family and friends. Until you meet again, take comfort and strength in the love and prayers that are sent by so many, your way. Take hope in the fact, that you will meet again in our eternal home, where God will wipe away every tear and sorrow, never to be remembered again.
