

James Gilbert Veale

January 9, 1951 - March 21, 2010

VEALE

My sweet beloved husband, James Gilbert Veale, entered through the Gates of Heaven to be with the Lord on March 21, 2010. He will live on through his wife of 38 years, Patricia Veale; father, Rev. T.E. Veale; brothers: Theodore, John and Steven; sisters: Joani Laufman, Judy Meals, and Mary Sue McPherson; aunts: Florence and Betty Veale; cousins: Paul and Phil, Bob and Mark, Kay and Tom Veale; sisters-in-law: Valerie Johnson, Lynn and Patrice Williams; brothers-in-law: Rodney and Randy Williams, and Rex Johnson; and precious nieces and nephews. He will be sorely missed by hundreds of friends.

James Veale, known as Jim, was born January 9, 1951 in San Antonio, Texas. He had an adventurous soul, whether going downtown to visit the Alamo or hiking in the wilderness in South America. Jim worked as a dedicated counselor for Adams Elementary for thirty-six years. Upon retirement, Jim was diagnosed with cancer. One of Jim's main accomplishments was being a musician in the Irish band, Boys of Wexford. Jim played the guitar, violin, autoharp and banjo. He also enjoyed his membership in Alan Drymala's study group whose focus was Jungian interpretation of dreams and spirituality.
