

James W. Walters

February 12, 1922 - October 18, 2011

James W. Walters, 89, of San Antonio, TX went to be with the Lord October 18, 2011. James grew up in Annapolis, MD. He worked at the United States Naval Experiment Station until he enlisted in the Army Air Corp. While stationed at Abilene Air Base he met and married Colleen King. He attended Hardin Simmons University in Abilene, TX then earned his B.B.A. with Honors at the University of Texas in Austin. His first job after graduating was with Dean Witter & Co. in New York, NY. While there he furthered his education at NYU where he obtained his MBA. James found a home in Texas and with Frost National Bank where he worked for 33 years until his retirement. In his free time he enjoyed singing in the Church choir at Christ Episcopal Church and the Chordsmen Choral Group. James was a devoted Father and Grandfather whom made his family feel loved. He was so proud of his family and they were so proud of him. James was preceded in death by his Parents, James and Agnes Walters; Sister, Elizabeth Smith; and Nephew Bruce Aisquith. Jim is survived by his Sister Barbara Walters of Reno, NV; Son, Jeff Walters and wife Kathy; Daughter Deborah Walters Currie and her husband Tony; grandchildren, Joanna Pagilinan and her husband Jimmy, Amy Verdecanna and her husband Brian, Jake Deleon and his wife Megan, Ryan Hale, and Jenna Hale; Great grandchildren, Riley, Jude, Holden, Brody, and Bryson; Niece Carol Steele and Nephew Brain Aisquith. Visitation will be on Thursday, October 20, 2011 from 6-8 PM at Mission Park Funeral Chapels North and Funeral Service will be held on Friday October 21, 2011 at 3:00 PM at Mission Park Funeral Chapels North with Interment to follow in Mission Burial Park North. The family welcomes flowers or donations to Christian Senior Services.