“ My sentiments were beautifully written by the Camp's message so I want to second their lovely words! My memories of your Dad are of an ever present, quiet, smiling, helpful man who always greeted me and my family with grins and hugs as if we were his own

“ Bless Your Hearts! You have been in my prayers already as you have had so many major life events the last couple of weeks! Jim was such a quiet gentleman of great strength. Always a smile and a piece of candy to start Sunday School! We are so blessed to
