

Mr. James Marvin Wilson

November 14, 1944 - November 10, 2020

James (Jimmy) Marvin Wilson, 75, of San Antonio, Texas, passed away on November 9, 2020 just five days short of his 76th birthday.

He was born to Chester and Paula Mae Wilson, on November 14, 1944 in San Antonio, Texas. Jimmy played drums in the Sam Houston High School marching band and graduated from Sam Houston High School in 1962. After graduation Jimmy began his lifelong career working in the banking industry here in San Antonio including Frost and Chase banks for over 40 years. Jimmy was not married but was extremely fond of his many pets and doves that he tended to over the years.

Jimmy is preceded in death by his parents Chester and Paula Mae Wilson. He is survived by his brother Courtney Wilson (Carolyn) and his nephews, Gary Wilson (Roxanne), Allen Wilson (Veronica) and niece Karen Buell (Jim) as well as being a Great Uncle to several nieces and nephews.

Jimmy was known for his love of photography along with his Sunday night slide show presentations, his global travels, tending to his pets and lawn as well his various collections of coins, Titanic memorabilia, and antique toys. Jimmy will be missed.
