“ I loved to hear Jane tell stories of when our parents, Mel and June Barborak, would take a weekend trip to Laredo. She would make me laugh so hard that I would cry. Something outrageous always seem to happen on those trips. I share lots of wonderful memories with her family, Ed, Jane, Mark and Susie. I am sorry that a will not be able to be at her service. I will be there in spirit. She is joining the group, having a Singapore Sling with June, Mel and Recko.

“ Gigi was a beautiful woman who always made you feel like you were welcome and she always truly cared about what others around her were doing. She had style with her timeless beauty and will be missed by her family that she leaves behind but is now in heaven with the loves of her life. She will be missed by so many.
