“ Janet you my little sister in everyway that counts. I love you so much. You where always so good to Andy and I. You help me through so much when Richard passed. You gave Andy and I a place to stay when we needed it. And you always made me feel so welcome and loved. I don't know what to do without you. I know you are happy, healthy, and loved where you are. But the pain of your loss will be felt for such a long time. I will never forget you. G[d by little sister. ALL

“ Hi mom, it seems like yesterday we were living on Kopplow, Dad, Grandma, Jennifer, Amanda, myself and we were enjoying dinner. Now in what seems to be the blink of an eye you're gone. I will always remember your laugh, your smile, your determination when you set your mind to something, but what I'll remember the most is your unwavering love and compassion for your children and grandchildren. You are greatly missed, needed, loved and your memory lives on with the values and ideals you've instilled on those around you, particularly your children. We love you mom.
