

Janet Caroline White Reagan

December 26, 1931 - September 29, 2019

Janet Caroline White Reagan, 87, passed away Sunday, September 29, 2019 at her home in San Antonio, TX. She was a beloved wife, mother, grandmother, and great grandmother.

Janet was born in San Antonio to O.D. White and Gertrude (Geissler) White and was a long time resident of south San Antonio. She graduated from Hot Wells High School and worked many years with Frost Bank. She was later employed as an executive secretary in the oil and gas industry. Upon retirement, Janet culminated her career at the McKinley Avenue Methodist Church. Her work ethic was passed to her children and Janet played an important role with her skills to help them develop successful businesses. She assisted her daughter with Jan Unlimited Catering and her son establish the Ranchers Exchange.

She was an integral part in the formation of the Ranchers Exchange newspaper, a monthly agricultural newspaper with a small office at Union Stock Yards San Antonio. Janet was there many nights helping the business get started and had a positive influence on everyone. She was well respected by many and adored by her family and friends.

Janet was preceded in death by her parents, husband J.W. "Bill" Reagan, and brother Doug White. She is survived by daughter Janice Green of San Antonio, son Terry Reagan (Jeana) of Boerne, grandson Sloane Green of San Antonio, granddaughter Lacy Reagan Harris (Derek) of Plano, great grandson Justin Touchstone of Medina Lake, and sister Gayle Heidel of New Braunfels. She is also survived by numerous nieces and nephews. We also want to thank Pam Creswell for her compassion and care of Janet.

“ Janet had a heart of gold. Janet has been my friend for many years. She always remembered my birthday with a card with such special words. At the end of each phone conversation or visit, she ended with "I Love You". That made me feel so special. Janet will be missed but always in my heart.
