“ Unable to be with y'all today but watching the service online. I just wanted to say how much I'll miss Janice. Unlike many who knew her in her younger, more active days, my fondest memories of her will be the afternoons and evenings I spent sitting quietly in her living room with her over roughly twenty Christmas and New Year's holidays, sharing occasional conversation and laughs. She accepted me into her home and family without reservation and made me feel welcome. Being in her presence were some of the most pleasant, peaceful holiday times I've ever known. I'll continue to be enriched by many of the gifts she brought to us through her daughter Diane, my wife, into whom she imbued so many of her qualities. The world lost a good one.
