

Janice E. Nino

April 20, 2002 - January 14, 2026

Janice E. Nino was born on April 20, 2002, and from the moment she came into my life, she became a part of my soul. She grew into a young woman with a gentle heart, a quiet strength, and a way of loving others that felt effortless and pure. Losing her on January 14, 2026, has left a pain I can hardly put into words, but even in this grief, I hold tightly to the gift of being her mother.

Janice had a warmth that made people feel safe, understood, and welcomed. She never rushed through moments with the people she loved she listened, she cared, and she showed up with her whole heart. One of the things I will miss most is how she never said goodbye. She always said “Later” when leaving family gatherings, as if she wanted us to know that love doesn’t end, and that she would always find her way back to us. That small phrase now feels like a promise I will carry for the rest of my life.

She leaves behind her mother, Stephanie M. Arguello; her father, Jose H. Nino Jr.; and her sister, Jaslyn M. Nino — each of us forever changed by her love. We will hold her memory close, speak her name often, and honor her by living with the same kindness and softness she brought into this world.

“Janice!! My dawg, my big cousin I love you so much fam I'll live for you and miss you til it's my turn to go. I'll always remember how we always looked forward to seeing eachother again whether it's a family event or our moms getting together and how you'd make sure we were comfortable and welcomed with your hospitality. I'll always remember the moments we had as cousins playing Pokémon go, you watching Jaslyn and I play 2k, birthdays, holidays and everything up until now. Thank you for always being so positive and uplifting and most importantly thank you for your support with the goals,dreams and plans I have for jaslyn and I. You always said the same thing “you know what you need to do, handle the business” and that's what I'm going to do! I love you Janice I'll see you again!!!

“My sweet girl. Janice was a ray of sunshine, she was always ready to sing along & dance with me. She knew exactly what & who I was talking about. She had a way with words and positivity. We grew up together seeing each other so often it became a regular thing. Making sure each of us were at an event together. We've been around all of our phases in life & our bond never changed. It's always “I love you family, I'll see you later” with a beautiful smile on her face. My heart weighs heavy as I know I won't see you or read your words whenever you swipe up my stuff. One thing for sure is that your voice will never leave my head, your laughter resonates in my soul as we laugh together. I love you family! I'll see you later!
