

Janie G. Berdecio

January 26, 1916 - December 24, 2010

BERDECIO

Janie G. Berdecio, died on December 24, 2010 at the age of 94. She is survived by her son, James Berdecio and his wife Shirley, grandson Philip Berdecio, and grandson Anthony Berdecio, his wife Megan and two great-granddaughters, Tatiana and Kaya Berdecio. She retired from Kelly Air Force Base in 1977 where she served as a payroll clerk for 34 years. There will be a funeral mass on Wednesday, December 29, 2010 at 10:00 a.m. at St. Paul's Catholic Church followed by interment at San Fernando Cemetery No. 2.

Tribute Wall

FM

“ Through a son who is in Norfolk, Va., we learned of the death of your mother, Janie G. Berdecio. The loss of a loved one leaves an infinite emptiness that never filled.

Our wish is that God give them peace of mind to bear this irreparable loss.

With

F. Fernando Berdecio Moreno - January 31, 2011 at 12:00 AM

MB

“ James, Shirley, Philip and Anthony:

So sorry to hear about your loss.

James, I know you are one on the best son's ever. The care you gave your mom was very evident and I always admired you for it.

James, you also played such a big part in Ma

Margie, Walter & Matt Benson - December 28, 2010 at 12:00 AM

MB

“ James, Shirley, Philip and Anthony:

So sorry to hear about your loss.

James, I know you are one on the best son's ever. The care you gave your mom was very evident and I always admired you for it.

James, you also played such a big part in Ma

Margie, Walter & Matt Benson - December 28, 2010 at 12:00 AM

JP

“ Dear James,

I read your mother's obituary in the newspaper and am very sorry to hear about the loss of your mother. My mother is 90 years old and I can't imagine what I will do when she is no longer with me and my family. Please accept my sincerest c

Janine Primomo - December 27, 2010 at 12:00 AM