“ I just found out that Janie passed away, I had no idea; i was very distressed and upset to say the least. Janie and I were best friends in high school, and both “country” girls that lived near each other; we had a huge influence on each other’s lives and there are so many parallels in how our lives evolved! Unfortunately we lost touch after high school, which I always regretted... i’ve thought of her so often these last few years, I just wish I would have followed through and got in touch with her! So many things left unsaid, she was my friend and I loved her... I don’t know if anybody will ever read this, but just know that she was one of the most awesome people I’ve ever known and she will be missed! Sincerely, Nancy Mann-Wanner
