“ From Rebecca V. Alvarez & Armando J. Valdez. Dear Pamela, Jesse & Family: Please accept our heartfelt sympathy on the loss of your mother, Mrs. Janie Medellin. Loosing your mom is so difficult (our mom, Connie Valdez, passed in January) but shared memories bring smiles & laughter that eventually will be more than the tears. Our moms were friends with a mutual affection & respect for each other, strong women who managed careers & family with equal devotion, commitment & dedication. My memory of your mom is being dropped off at your house one Saturday (by mom on her way to open the beauty shop). Mrs. Medellin's committee was responsible for creating table decoration for a dance (IWHS? CCHS?). At outside tables, we helpers were tasked with peeling away pint milk cartons from glittered plaster of Paris basis, or assigned to decorate the painted branch "trees" with themed ornaments. Your mom and dad pitched in, while keeping us all on task until everything was competed. Again, we send love & heartfelt sympathy to you and ours.
