“ My deepest condolences for the loss of Janie. I had the pleasure of meeting her when I was in middle school. I was friends with her daughter Joann and knew the family. Its a great loss to everyone she knew and to those whose lives she touched.. She was a very loving woman and will greatly be missed. Rest In eternal peace.

“ Mrs. Trevino was a beautiful soul and always made me feel loved by her words and hugs. I so loved chatting with her because of her joyful heart. May God have her in His Holy embrace forever more so she can rest in peace. She truly was a shining example of a good and faithful servant. May His perpetual light shine upon you for all your great works in this world. ❤️

“ *To the Family of Janie Trevino,
It is always difficult when you lose someone you have lived with for years. But remember those good memories with them and they will live forever in your mind.
Janie was always an exceptional person and that smile she would give you said it all.
She will definitely be missed by many who's heart she touched.
Rest in Peace Janie.
