“ Janina,

My heart hurts on your passing prima, How I wish I could have seen you mora often, I still remember when we were kids and Susie and I were staying with you and Brenda during summer of 1977. We went to recreation at St Leo's, and we had so much fun with you and Brenda . But my most memorable moment was when I was riding my bike up the hill on Teresa and I fell off and broke my right arm. You booked it up the street to get me and made sure I was going to be alright. I Thank you for this prima and I have never forgotten. May you Rest in Peace forever and feel no more pain. With all my love and prayers, Bobby Travieso
