My beloved husband of 50 years, a man of few words but always saying that he was so proud of how good his children turned out to be. He was very proud of his sons for serving in the armed forces, something he wasn't able to do. And his daughters for staying in the medical field and always helping people. So grateful to God for his goodness and faithfulness to my husband and my family.

He will be greatly missed by all who knew and loved him.
