

Jay Patrick Dickinson

October 6, 1958 - January 3, 2023

Born and raised in San Antonio, Texas. He went to Robert E. Lee High School and was in the band. Jay played the trumpet in the school band.

When Jay was 18 months old, his grandparents lived next door. Jay decided to walk out of his house and go next door to visit the grandparent, telling no one. After Jay's great escape, mom and dad put a latch on the screen door. Jay studied how the screen door was opened and took a broom to push up on the latch to unlatch it. And so, Jay partook in the great escape II visiting the grandparents again.

At age 5, on the way to Jays preschool class at church, a policeman had stopped his mother for speeding. The young Jay stuck his head over his mother's shoulder to let the policeman know, that "we were just going to Church." The policeman had to turn his head due to a big smile. The policeman gave mom a warning and watch her driving, and as he was walking away, he had with a big smile on his face.

It is with great sadness that the news of the loss of Jay Dickinson the Branch Manager in Bryan, TX. He lost his fight with cancer and passed away Tuesday January 3rd, 2023.

Jay was very well respected not only as a good Branch Manager, but also as a person and a friend to all that met him. Jay was a great resource to his branch and was always described as a "Company Man".

Jay began his career at MidCap Bearing before joining Purvis Industries in 1986. He worked his way up within Purvis finally settling in Bryan as Manager.

Jay enjoyed his life outside of work as well. He liked tinkering with cars and especially loved his completely restored '69 Camaro as well as his vast knowledge of electronics.

Jay is survived by his (mother) Donna Dickinson, (brother) Gene Dickinson, (brothers' wife) Ronda Dickinson, (niece) Shannon Dickinson, (niece) Jean Dickinson.

“ I was so sad to hear of Jay's passing at such a young age. I want to express my deepest condolences to his mom and brother. Jay and I were married for 3 + years when we were very young. Jay was a good man with a good heart. When we went our separate ways, I prayed he would have a life full of love and happiness. ❤️ ”

“ Jay and I go all the way back to the 6th grade. We were tight as could be until the early mi 80's. Then then was some sort of drift, but we remained friends. I'm going to miss him dearly. Too many of us are disappearing.
