“ Patsy and I remember the old days in West Virginia with the visits we made to see Jean and Aunt Pearl and Ed. Times were hard in those days but the visits were real pleasant and we always looked forward to the visit. We remember Jean as a friendly and happy person. She and Harry were good to be around. Very good memories, - Walt And Patsy Farris

“ Lenora Jean Bennett,
You were a Great boss, great wife, great mom, loving granny and Wonderful friend.
I miss and will continue to miss the time we spent together for the past 40 or so yrs. Sitting in your kitchen talking about anything and everything. My kids, you and me swimming in your pool. Our trip to the coast with Cindy, Kim and Scotty in your camper. The kids were little. 1st time Scotty ate or tasted guacamole. He would never eat it before you made it. He loved it. You teaching me how to fix a Turkey for Thanksgiving . You laughing because I didnt know which end was which. That year was the beginning of many years cooking Thanksgiving Dinner together. Then there was Christmas, wrapping gifts together and drinking egg nog year after year. That was our tradition for many years. Then you and Harry started traveling. Life and traditions changed. We never did continue with our traditions but our friendship and love for each other continued until our Lord took you home. I love you and miss you my friend. You were there for me in really good times and bad. Now you are with Jesus, happy and care free, pain free, loved more than you can imagine sitting next to our Lord and Savior.
