

Jean-Claude K. Mande

February 24, 1980 - October 25, 2012

Jean-Claude Kyam Mande, born on February 24, 1980 was called home to be with the lord on Thursday, October 25, 2012 at the age of 32. His love, caring and empathy for others, and tremendous smile will be missed by his wife, Bojana Revenge; parents, Raymond and Ida Mande; siblings, Dominique and Christelle, Dinah, Angel, Freddy, and Ester; niece, Domine; host parents, Dr. Charles and Lucille Dayton; as well as numerous relatives and friends. "JC" as his friends and family called him, came to the United States from his beloved country, the Democratic Republic of Congo to attend college. He hungered for knowledge, continuously learning and challenging himself in new areas and disciplines. He worked for the United Services Automobile Association as a software developer and integrator where his passion for computers and related technologies allowed him to serve others.

SERVICES

Visitation will be held on Wednesday, October 31 from 6 p.m. to 9 p.m. and the funeral service will be Thursday, November 1 at 3p.m. Both will be held at Mission Park North Funeral Chapel, 3401 Cherry Ridge Drive, San Antonio, Texas. He will be laid to rest in Lubumbashi, Democratic Republic of Congo.