

Jean Webb Cook

March 10, 1941 - April 28, 2014

Jean Webb Cook age 73 of San Antonio passed after a lengthy illness on Monday, April 28, 2014. She was born Jean Ann Webb on March 10, 1941 in Olney, TX to William and Zora Swaim Webb who preceded her in death. She is survived by her sons, Doug Grant and wife, Tambra and Brad Grant; grandchildren, Jason, Brandi and Tanner; great grandchildren, Hailee, Kade, Addison, Dominick and Paxton; brothers and sisters, Lynn Webb, Billy, Webb, Peggy Rankin, Glenda Bishop and Nancy Winterburn; numerous nieces and nephews.

Jean grew up in Plainview, Texas, and attended and graduated from Plainview High School in 1959. She married in the same year, and after relocating in Hawaii and South Carolina, settled in Lubbock, Texas.

In 1985, Jean transferred with Equitable to San Antonio, where she came to love the vibrant city. She thoroughly enjoyed the Spurs, the riverwalk, and the numerous friends and acquaintances she met through work and social settings. After her first visit to the Texas coast and Corpus Christi, she found a new love, the beach. Many a time did she go to Port Aransas and the coast, and was able to see her grandkids and eventually great grandchildren get that first experience with the gulf coast. She was truly at peace at the beach.

The family would like to recognize and thank the Start Center in San Antonio, particularly Dr. Amy Lang.
