

Jean N. Geving

May 17, 1927 - February 8, 2011

GEVING

Jean N. Geving, age 83, passed away suddenly on 2/8/2011. Throughout her lifetime she was a devoted Christian and a member of the Methodist Church wherever she lived. In San Antonio, where she spent her last years, she was closely associated with Oxford United Methodist Church and deeply appreciated the support the church provided. Jean was always a sweet and caring person and even on the day of her death she was able to produce a smile on her pretty face. Jean was born in Madison, WI on May 17, 1927, the first child of Margaret and Burton Neesvig. She was destined to be the oldest of five sisters. She was preceded in death by her devoted husband of 35 years, Robert Geving; sisters, Elizabeth Von Rutunberg of Madison, WI, Ruth Olson of Madison, WI and Peggy Neesvig also of Madison. She is survived by her brother, Burton O. Neesvig, M.D. of San Antonio, TX and her younger sister, Patricia Madoni of Portage, WI. Other survivors include her step-daughter, Frances Van Dorn of Bemidji, Minn; and two step-grandchildren, Leah and Laura Van Dorn, also from Minn. A Graveside Service will be held on Tuesday, February 15, 2011 at 10:30AM at Ft. Sam Houston National Cemetery, where she will join her husband. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to Boysville of San Antonio, Oxford United Methodist Church or to a charity of your choice.

You may sign the on-line guestbook at www.missionparks.com under the obituary section.

“ Dear Pat and Ted
My deepest sympathy to you with the loss of your sister, Jean. I have many happy childhood memories of our family gatherings with Jean and the two of you when we came to The Neesvig Home in Shorewood. We were blessed with a large family

“ Jean was a truly remarkable woman & she came into my life as my step mom when I was a 10 year old girl. Jean was the best of the best. She taught me to cook, tend a garden, sew & keep house. She inspired me with her faith in God & her love of people. W
