GROSS

Jean Gross was born May 1, 1921, in Wayland, TX, to E.C. and Jessie Lambert. She died March 15, 2009 at North Central Baptist Hospital. She was the last surviving member of 3 sisters and 1 brother. Jean's father was a Methodist minister and his calling took the family to many Texas cities over the years. Jean attended Trinity University and North Texas State College in Denton, TX. She met and married the love of her life, Rex Gross October 14, 1945. Her role became that of supportive partner and doting mother. Rex died March 16, 1979. Jean moved to New Braunfels, TX to be near her daughter living in San Antonio. She was an avid bridge player with a host of friends. In later years, due to health issues, she resided with her daughter in San Antonio. Jean is survived by her daughter, Linda Gross; grandson, Rex Gross of San Antonio; niece, Rebecca Ann Williman of Victoria and by many friends. A Memorial Service will begin at 3:00 PM on Friday, March 20, 2009 at Mission Park Funeral Chapels North.
