Jean Clark Murdock

September 17, 1914 – February 14, 2015

Jean Murdock, after a life well-lived, died peacefully in her sleep on Feb. 14, 2015. Born in 1914 in Avon Park, Florida, she celebrated her 100th birthday last year. She began a long career with the Government in the civil service sector in Mobile, Alabama, transferring to San Antonio's Kelly AFB in 1961. Her work took her to Iran for several years and allowed her to indulge in a passion for travel. Jean continued her education through much of her life, and in 1985 graduated Cum Laude from Our Lady of the Lake University. She was a member of the 4th Church of Christ Scientist.

Jean enjoyed playing bridge, trips to Las Vegas, hosting Christmas parties and vacationing with her two daughters. She is preceded in death by her husband Ralph Murdock and daughter Gloria Russell of Naples, Florida. She is survived by her loving daughter Janet Murdock of Austin, Texas. A Memorial Service will begin at 3:00 PM on Monday, February 23, 2015 at Mission Park Funeral Chapels North.
