“ Our deepest sympathies go out to the family. Jean was a wonderful person. I have many memories of her during my younger years. Not only as a neighbor but as a babysitter to her boys, a student riding her bus and as a young person listening to her band. Although she was strict as a bus driver she also made it fun to ride her bus with paper fights at the end of the year and if we were good she stopped at the store and let a few kids at a time go into the store to get something. She had some interesting ways of keeping us in line on the bus that in current times would not be allowed. But her methods worked and she got us to and from school safely. If you had a problem she would offer a willing ear and give advice. My husband Dennis and I are blessed to have known her. Rest in peace Jean, fly high with your angel wings. All our love Kerry and Dennis Dunford
