“ So sorry to hear of Jeanette’s passing. Just found this on Facebook this morning.

I met Jeanette 23 years ago in a chat group. Her and Asher even came to visit my husband and me in Michigan

Sending love and prayers to Jeanette’s family. She was a kind hearted lady.

RIP sweet Jeanette

“ Such a kind lady with a big heart. Her love and care for family was her greatest joy, next to being active at church. I can't remember a funeral meal without her homemade pimento cheese, or a quilting day without her sewing machine .. or a visit to her home without being met by her beloved "Cinnamon". She will be greatly missed by many, but I give thanks for peace that is now hers with Christ.

“ I remember being at Jeanette's house at Christmas time one year when I was little. She had candy canes hung on her Christmas tree. Matthew, Kammie and me all liked that idea, but especially Matthew. Jeanette told us to get a candy cane off of the tree! The next year, and every year after that, Matthew wanted candy canes on his Christmas tree. What a great memory! ...Carrie Flores
