“ Bob and Family

Jeanette will be missed by many of her friends including George and Janie and please know that your friendship is one that we loved and enjoyed over the years. The Conn name and relationship has been a part of our lives for many years and has been and will always be remembered with with gratitude and pleasure forever.

Jeanette gave of herself for many important causes in her life to be remembered by all. We will miss her and have you in our prayers, Bob, and look forward to your visits when in College Station.

With love, George and Janie
