

Jeanne M. Dean

February 24, 1929 - October 9, 2004

Dean

The sun rose on February 24, 1929 and set on October 10, 2004.

Jeanne M. Dean passed away at the age of 75. She was born in San Antonio, Texas, moved with her family to California, graduated high school 1946 in Sacramento. Jeanne attended nursing school at the Baptist Memorial Hospital School of Nursing and graduated as an R.N. in 1949. The last 20 years of her nursing career were spent as an Occupational Health Nurse with Holly Farms in Seguin, Texas. Jeanne's passions were books, music, Dallas Cowboys and her beloved cat Oliver. Jeanne had a sweet and loving spirit and will be truly missed by all those who loved her. Jeanne is preceded in death by her parents and her beloved son, James K. Dean, Jr. She is survived by her sister, Lavern McMillan of Port Arthur, TX; daughter, Melissa R. Long and husband Carson; uncle, Louis Witta; cousin, Roberta West and husband North; and numerous other cousins; grandchildren, Jay and Nicholas; best friends, Kris and husband Andy Leija.

Services

Memorial services will be held on Saturday, October 16, 2004 at 1:00 PM at Mission Park Funeral Chapels South. Interment to be held at a later date at Mission Burial Park South.

Tribute Wall

JC

“ I worked w/ Jeanne for many years at Holly Farms/Tyson and we became close freinds. I will always treasure our time together. She was such a unique person. We shared many interests and had many conversations about politics, music and books. She gave me he

John Cottrill - October 25, 2004 at 12:00 AM