

Jency Blanche Nichols

January 2, 1933 - August 29, 2017

Heaven gained an awesome angel, the hour Jency Blanche Nichols left this earth as a genuine jewel on Tuesday, August 29, 2017. Jency was born in Stamford, Texas and grew up in the small town of Crane, Texas. She attended the University of Texas before marrying her first husband of 17 years, William Samuel White, Jr. They later moved to Midland, Texas where she gave birth to her only daughter, Deborah A. White and later to her only son, Sam J. White. She resided in Midland until her second and final marriage of 43 years to Bill Nichols who preceded in death just 5 months ago. They moved to San Antonio, Texas in 1974 until her passing. Jency was expecting her first great grandchild and went to New York with her daughter, Deborah to help her precious granddaughter, Crystal Sinclair decorate her nursery. She was the best Mother, Grandmother and friend anyone could ever have. Her last hours on this earth were spent with her family. There was no other place she would want to be. Jency enjoyed many things such as cooking, sewing, golfing, slot machines, going on cruises, bowling, bridge, hunting, gardening and anything that involved nature. She loved the Lord with all her heart. The little things in life were always her biggest treasures. She has left behind many wonderful memories and traditions. She loved so many people and never met a stranger; she always cared about others more than herself. Everyone that met her loved her. She will be truly missed. In addition to Bill, she was preceded in death by her parents, Jack and Josie Porter. Jency is survived by her daughter, Deborah A. White; her son, Sam White and his wife, Merrily; her grandchildren, Crystal Sinclair and her husband, Ben, Cody Soele, Samantha White and Travis White; Bill's children, Buddy Nichols and his wife, Katie and Debbie Patterson and her husband, John; Bill's grandchildren, Patrick Dickey and Jessica Nichols.

“ Oh, how I loved this woman! She was very funny, always smiling and making everyone feel at home and at ease. She knew no stranger. She was completely genuine. She was full of expressions and since she was outspoken, we have all probably heard one or another of them. She always called me darling or baby and I felt truly loved by her as another daughter. She was always taking care of people and animals. She was incredibly giving of herself. I am blessed to have known her. She really was a very unique woman. She will be missed by everyone that knew her. I am heartbroken for her family because I love them all, but I am thankful to the Lord for bringing her home.

I love you Jency,

Shelly

“ Jency, or as I called her Mimi, was a wonderful grandmother. Having spent a good deal of my childhood with her, she and I were really close. As a kid we'd spend many nights squeezed into the same recliner, her to hand-stitch and me to watch a favorite movie while we shared a coca cola or spend evenings doing an enormous puzzle on the dining table - seriously, we did hundreds of puzzles! She was such a patient, caring, selfless, and loving person, always trying to help. She was always there for me when I needed her and would always tell it me straight, which is so rare to find these days, especially amongst your own family. She taught me good values, old sayings, and traditions that I hope to pass on. She'll be greatly missed.
