

Jennifer Lynn Garcia

January 21, 1984 - November 30, 2014

Jennifer Lynn Garcia, 30, passed away in San Antonio, Texas on November 30, 2014. She was born in Miami, Florida on January 21, 1984 to James Lozano Garcia and Marlene Barbara Garcia. Jennifer is survived by her parents, sister Crystal K. Niño, and brother James Eugene Garcia, several aunts, uncles, cousins, nieces and nephews. Jennifer will be greatly missed but never forgotten.

Jennifer had an Associate of Arts degree from Northwest Vista College. She served as a singing member of the praise team at her church Grace San Antonio. Every month, Jennifer would assist at the International Bible College food bank, with her mother Marlene, in distributing food items to those who would seek assistance.

Jennifer was an active member of the Star Wars Society of San Antonio and participated in several of the group's fund raisers for various charities...sometimes she was in costume.

Jennifer accepted the Lord Jesus Christ as her personal Savior and was baptized at an early age, in her preteen years. She, greatly, loved God and would serve as His ambassador any way she could, reaching out to assist others. Before her illness set in, she worked as an after school daycare provider for elementary school children. She touched more lives in 30 years than most people do in a lifetime. She is in heaven singing to the Lord and will be greatly missed by those who love her here.

The rings she is wearing on a chain are the ones her boyfriend, Jesse Tellez, was going to give her as an engagement and marriage ring. She wears them now because she loved Jesse.

All is not lost, Jennifer stands before the throne of God worshiping Him and we will be reunited with her when either we pass on or when Jesus returns for His people.

We pray everyone in attendance will come to know how good God's grace is and will give their hearts to Him.

For by grace are ye saved, through faith, and that not of yourselves, it is the gift of God, not of works, lest any man should boast. Ephesians 2:8, 9

From the rising of the sun, to the going down of the same, the Lord's Name is to be praised. Psalm 113:3
