

Jeremiah David Turner

December 11, 2018 - March 14, 2024

Jeremiah David Turner was born in San Antonio, TX on December 11, 2018. He was the first child of three born to Andrew Turner and Christie Lyons.

Jeremiah was known for his love of reading books, going to school, and jammin' to hip-hop ABCs. He enjoyed going to Chuckee Cheese, riding dirt bikes, and playing with others especially; his brother Elijah. Jeremiah was happiest when he was eating apples, singing songs, and spending time with his family. He captured the hearts of everyone with his laughter, neverending energy, and his beautiful eyes. Jeremiah attended Elm Creek Elementary where he went on field trips to the zoo and built strong relationships with the teachers.

On March 14th, 2024 God called our Golden Boy home to be our guardian angel; leaving fond memories for all of us to cherish him in our hearts. He was deeply loved by all who knew him, Jeremiah impacted so many lives during his time on earth by helping raise awareness of Autism and water safety.

Jeremiah David is survived by his loving parents Andrew and Christie; brother Elijah James and sister Amiah Joy; His grandparents Henrietta (Turner) Mitchell, Marc A. Turner Sr., Laura Bringer and Jerry Lyons. His Aunt Jazmine, Uncle Marc Jr., and a host of other loving relatives, and dear friends.

“ 🎵 Circles and lines, circles and lines these are the letters circles and lines 🎵 I can still see the look of happiness when i would sing that song. I can still hear the excitement in your voice . I keep looking at the window hoping to see your face. You left us to soon, but Heaven has another angel please look over mommy and daddy please help them be stronger than ever. 💙🙏
