“ Jeri and I met through watercolor class many years ago, and for most of the time since were part of an informal after class lunch get-together. She was a lovely person, kind and always positive, and enjoyed painting very much. Godspeed, Jeri! We miss you very, very much.

“ Jerri was a long time friend from So. San but we became close in art class. Always optimistic, always positive, "we'll learn something from this" she would say when doubts about a project came up. She always had a smile, always had a tender story, always filled the room with her optimistic joy. She had the talent of kindness and caring as well as of creativity and painting. We loved her in class.
