

Jerome Joseph Rodriguez Flores

July 2, 1972 - August 21, 2020

Jerome Joseph (Jay) Rodriguez Flores, age 48 of San Antonio, Texas has joined his love ones in heaven on Friday, August 21, 2020.

Jerome was born to Richard E. Flores Jr. and Jeanette (Rodriguez) Flores in San Antonio, Texas on July 2, 1972.

Jerome, was a proud “Rocket”, the Class of 1990 where he graduated from Judson High School, in Converse, Texas. He played football in Kirby Jr. High, Judson, and played in a pony league. Jerome enjoyed playing baseball and was a longtime member of Park Village Little league when he was growing up. Jerome graduated from Le Cordon Bleu in Austin, Texas receiving his degree as Executive Chef, his passion and specialty was Italian Cuisine. He loved to cook and BBQ “Brisket”, and “Ribs” for the family. He taught anyone who wanted to learn but his goal was to teach his children, and as they got older they would challenge each other and the family would be the judges. Jerome, worked at USAA/Towers, ARA, and Rosemary’s catering. He enjoyed cooking for special occasions, celebrities, and those in need. Jerome, would volunteer feeding the homeless, veterans, and Non-profits organizations such as USMVPA (United States Military Veterans Parade Association), VFW Post 8111, LULAC District XV, Fiesta Flambeau, MLK, and the LULAC Youth Council #1124, where he would often help fundraise. Jerome, was a member of LULAC (League of United Latin American Citizens), & San Fernando Cathedral, Former Volunteer of the Fiesta Flambeau Parade Association, San Antonio River parade Association.

He loved music, and spending quality time with his family, and friends, and his passion was watching “Batman” his favorite hero, and all the other “Super Heroes”. He collected comic books, Action figures, T-Shirts, books, and movies from each one.

Jerome, was always ready to share jokes, stories, and plan pranks on his friends, and family. Jerome, had an infectious smile and you could not help but to smile back. His teachers would sometimes contact mom, stating that when they would try to conduct class, he would be the only one with a guilty smile, and the teacher would scold him, and would be sent to office to be reprimanded.

Jerome’s talent in the kitchen was an extension of his joy, and ability to nurture life in all forms and his passion drew him closer to his children whom he loved unconditionally. Jay leaves behind a legacy that lives within those mentioned, and loved. He would want us all to remember; this is not where it ends.

Jerome, is survived by his parents, Richard E. & Jeanette Flores, his son, Austin Tyler, daughter, Morgan Paige, his brothers Richard G. (Rick), Christopher Ryan, (Tommy Carrico) his brother-in-law, Peter Anthony Flores, (Robert Rosales), his beloved maternal Grandmother, Margaret Rodriguez, The love of his life, Margo Grimaldo, nieces, nephew, Aunts, Uncles, numerous cousins, extended brothers and loving companion Jack Fuzzybottoms.

Jerome is preceded in death by his paternal grandparents; Richard E. & Juanita Flores, his maternal grandfather, Joe John Rodriguez, and his beloved twin daughters, Alyssa Marie, & Ashley Megan Flores.
