“ He was the best big brother a girl could have growing up. Taught me how to ride a bike, a mini bike and motorcycle, work on cars, let me stay up to watch Johnny Carson, Mary Hartman, Mary Hartman and Three’s Company before Dad got home at 12:15am from work. Make popcorn on the stove top, open a soda bottle with teeth!! Scared the day lights out of me with his pet horny toads. Our road trip to Maryland and roller skating at the The Sports Palace Thank you for being THE BEST big brother to your little tag a long sister Love you always

“ Jerry was the closest thing I had to a brother. For 41 years he protected my sister, Elaine and loved us both. He and Elaine gave the best gifts, jackets, lights, chairs, his beloved cat and hideout. Until we see you again in heaven skate on!
