“ First, I want to say that I Loved Chuy with all my heart and I told him that every time we hung up with each other and he always said I love you too! I first met Chuy in 1985 when I was 15 yrs., his daughter Rosie is my best friend and a sister I never had. I would always say that Chuy was my 2nd dad because I spent so much time w/ both of them. He always said that I was his 2nd daughter and I was so proud of that and still am. Chuy was the most generous man I have ever met, when I was a teen he would pick me up on the weekends. They would come and get me in his little blue Luv Truck and would take us out to eat, I always felt weird because I never brought any money but he would always say don't worry I got you, get whatever you want. I'll never forget how loved he made me feel! I will truly miss his caring, loving, and funny sense of humor. When we were together it was non stop laughter, he always laughed at everything I said and that felt good. I have so many memories that I could have shared but it would take too long. My biggest memory is being at Rosie's house for the weekends because it was always much more exciting than my house. Rosie would say Hey Dad let's bbq and he would say let's do it. He would take out $100 and give it to us to buy everything and would say don't forget the beer. LOL He'd say invite whoever we wanted and he never cared if anyone pitched in or not! I'm so blessed to have been a friend of Chuy Jimenez, he will forever live in my heart. RIP my 2nd Dad, I love you and will be thinking of you always.

Love Cyndi Lucio

“ Tio, a very talented, gifted, respected musician, a legend in tejano music to list a few. To our family, you're Santa, an honorary grandpa to the young ones, a Tio who gave you his all, he made sure that you were taken care of. Thank you for all the memories, the trust you gave to me with the Chevy Citation to cruise Military, the gas money, refreshment money - haha. I will always look for you at the concerts, cheers Tio! Thank you for listening, thank you for the talks, thank you for that push, the encouragement to have that conversation that would change my life for the better. Tio, you are and will be tremendously missed. As you would always say, Don't Forget About Chuy! Never Tio Never... April 7th will be a new tradition at Little Red Barn!

“ My dear amigo. I met Chuy while working at Fairchild Aircraft, 30 years ago. Soon after, he baptized my first child, Jamie Lynn. So many good memories and so much laughter... I was like a groupie, going to the places he played drums. Happy hour(s) after work. Hanging out at my house with Jamie Lynn and LeAnn. He always had different stories to share. Learning that we were connected with the Soria/Lizcano family was so bizarre. My dear amigo, you will never be forgotten and will forever be in my heart. I love you, Chuy!

“ Always will treasure the memories of my brother and the times shared during the weekend at my house or my sons house. We had many barbecues during the football and basketball season watching the Cowboys and Spurs. Chuy always had some great stories to tell and I will truly miss you brother, but I know you are with great company, Dennis, Tony Love, mom, and dad. Love you brother. God Bless You, Amen.
