“ I only recently learned of Jesse's passing and just want to say that he was one of the nicest human beings I worked with during three decades at the SA Express-News. Roddy Stinson

“ Remember Jesse and Sheldon Kosharek both very well. One thing I will never forget is a call I made with Sheldon on the south side for a mentally disturbed person. Sheldon took his guitar from the car and sang songs to the person and all went extremely well. Guy totally calmed down and no other action had to be taken. How some calls were handeled back in the day!

“ Jesse was wonderful to work with at the San Antonio Express-News, very giving and patient with new reporters. And he had great stories about his years with the San Antonio Police Department. After he retired, he'd drive from Floresville several times a month to drop off cartons of eggs as gifts to former colleagues at the Express-News. The eggs were fine but seeing Jesse's smiling face in the newsroom was a welcome sight.

“ Jesse was always a guidance in my life. Very giving heart to a fault. I admired him for being so kind, honest, and helpful. He loved his family and was proud of each and everyone of them. I am sure he is with his late wife and son, happy once again with no pain. Rest in Peace Jesse, we are all going to be alright until we are called home as well someday. Jesse please take care of our loved ones and set them straight. lol...We Love You and you will be missed.

“ All of you know John and I would love to be there to offer you each a hug and a shoulder. I loved your Daddy and always looked up to him. He was truly a “piece of work” with Jesse and Violet as parents! Always a laugh or interesting story. He will be missed but I pray you will keep him alive to the grands with your memories.
