“ *I grew up to know my Uncle Jesse as my, Uncle Chuy. He was not only my uncle but he graced my life as my Godfather. When I was a baby and my Aunt Louise, Godmother, used to watch me, she said that he used to call me, affectionately, Mira, El Guero *#&$,@. Can't say or spell that word, lol. Between us. As I grew up, I know he was always there to watch over me. He loved my wife Posey and my sons as well as he got to know our grandsons. When we would have them over for Thanksgiving, he would love to eat my wife's cranberry and white chocolate chip cookies, so much so, that she would make extra so he could take some home.*

Uncle Chuy, you will be missed in our lives.

We Love You.
