

Jesse G. Perez Jr.

March 30, 1976 - October 12, 2024

Jesse G Perez Jr went to be with our lord on October 12, 2024. He was born on March 30, 1976 in San Antonio Tx to Jesse O and Esther Perez.

He will be dearly missed by many including his wife Claudia of 31 years. His four children. Jesse James, Isaac, Joseph, and Sandra. His siblings Fred and wife Michelle, Michelle Velez and husband Sergio, Jessica, and Steven.

Numerous nieces, nephews, in law, and extended family and friends.

He was the best father, husband, son and uncle anyone can ask for.

His family was his life. Always wanting the best for his family.

In his spare time he loved riding his Harley. Going on long rides through the hill country with his wife. He loved closing out the weekend with family dinners. But most of all he loved his family time at home. Watching movies with a beer on the side and laughing away with his Married with Children episodes.

If there's one word to describe him it would be he was a very hard working dedicated man. If he had the opportunity to work seven days straight, that was him. His passion was going in the early morning hours to work in his Peterbilt. He was a very giving, generous, devoted, lovable man. Making friends wherever he went. He will be deeply missed. May you rest in peace. Love you always.

Visitation will be held on Monday, October 21, 2024 from 5:00pm-8:00pm, with a Rosary at 6:00pm at Mission Park Funeral Chapels North.

A procession will depart the funeral home chapel on Tuesday, October 22, 2024 at 9:30am, with a Funeral Mass to be celebrated at 10:00am at the St. Fernando Cathedral.

“ Today marks one year without you. There's so much I wish I could say to you. I wish I could tell you how hard it's been since you left this world. How I still look for you in everything. I wish you knew I haven't stopped missing and loving you, not even for a moment. You were the rock of our home, my best friend and soulmate. Now I'm just trying to figure out how to live in a world where you're no longer here. It still does not feel real. It's a dream I'm trying to wake up from and hoping you walk through the door. I laugh when I'm supposed to, I smile when the world expects me too but inside I'm still shattered and aching from the hurt you left behind. I haven't been okay since you left, and this heartbreak is a weight I'll carry for the rest of my life. I'd give anything for one more hug, one more smile, one more kiss, one more “I love you”. I was so blessed to have had a wonderful, loving husband like you. Heaven holds you now and God has you in His arms. But I'll forever have you in my heart. Love you always, your loving wife.

“The wise writer of the Bible book of Ecclesiastes said: “A name is better than good oil, and the day of death than the day of one’s being born.” (Ecclesiastes 7:1) Why would the day of one’s death be better than the day of one’s birth? Because at birth a person has no established reputation. His personal slate is totally blank. His life course will result in either a positive or a negative reputation. For those who have established a good name over the years, the day of death is indeed better in that respect than the day of birth.

Jesse’s reputation was that of a kind, generous, hard working man that loved his family. Something that we all would be proud of.

When I have lost loved ones Rev 21:4 has helped me.

“And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.”

Our deepest condolences for your loss.

“ My condolences to Claudia and her Family, also to my Tio Chuy and Tia Esther and family. Primo JJ was a one of a kind man! I remember him to always be ready to lend a helping hand to anyone in need. He was a hardworking and loving family man. I always remember my Primo with a smile on his face or laughing. The Primos always had fun hanging out together as kids and I will always remember him that way. He will be missed. God has a new Angel.
