“ I am grateful for all the happy memories of cousin Chuy, especially when were kids. I'll never forget Chuy telling me that if anyone was being mean to me to let him know and he would throw rocks at them. He wanted to protect us. I will miss his big smile and his big bear hugs. Love you always cousin and may you rest in peace. To all of Chuy's brothers and sisters and family, we send our heartfelt condolences. We love you all.

“ My heart aches for Uncle Jesse. I can only remember how he was there to watch me grow up. Held my hand to the store and carried me to get a snow cone from the ice cream trucks., You watched me climb the trees and roof top on Crystal street and ready to catch me. You would hold me when I skinned my knees. Tought me to sing oldies. How he sang ooo baby baby and rocked back & forth. And me to at 7 years old. We didnt know the words but to singing ooo baby baby. And we would laugh... i couldn't wait for you to get home from work and yell chuy and jump in his arms. To many memories growing up with him that it hurts. He watched me and my cousins and our children all grow up. I love you Uncle Jesse and miss you dearly. You are now with grandma & grandpa where you have always wanted to be. ❤️❤️❤️❤️
