

Jessiel Pacheco

August 18, 1932 - December 21, 2013

Bank in the distribution of donated food items to local churches and community centers, served as Treasurer of the former organization known as the Hispanic Partnership and was Interim Director for the Wesley Community Center. A member of Pollard Memorial Methodist Church for over 50 years, Jessie served faithfully in various positions within the church and the Rio Grande Conference of the United Methodist Church. His service was just a small portion of his Christian commitment, where he exhibited the love of Christ in his heart as well as his life. Jessie will be remembered for his infectious smile and energy for life. The family would like to extend appreciation to the administration and workers of Homewood Residence Assisted Living and Hospice Innovative Senior Care for their kindness and care.

Services are scheduled for Monday, December 30, 2013 with a viewing at Alamo Funeral Home, 624 N. Alamo, from 5:00 -7:00 p.m. This will be followed by a church service at La Trinidad United Methodist Church, 300 San Fernando St., on Tuesday, December 31, 2013 at 9:30 a.m. and an 11:15 a.m. burial at Fort Sam Houston Cemetery.
