“ Thank you Uncle Jesse, I definitely know that Mom has an Angel in Heaven watching over her with you there. As you would say "You Better Believe It". I know she will MISS the daily phone calls you both shared. The Brother/Sister relationship you two had was very, very special that we should all learn from. We Love You but it does make us happy that you are in our Lord's Home.

“ My favorite memories of you were how the first things you'd ask me when I'd come to visit you were "how are you doing?" And "have you eaten anything?" You were always concerned about everyone's well being, whether it be a family member or someone you just met. You enjoyed the simple pleasures of life such as sitting outside on your green chair enjoying the weather, watching black and white cowboy movies, occasionally eating some sweets despite being bad for you, and who can forget your competitive spirit when it came to playing BINGO. We miss you grandpa but we know you're in a better place now and will continue to look after us from above. Thank you for being a wonderful grandparent. There will never be another you!

-Love Always, Paul Anthony Sanchez
