“ Jesse was a high school classmate of mine, and I only had recently reconnected with him. I had a nice conversation over the phone with him after many years since our school years. We spoke of him coming out to visiting and seeing each other again, after all these years. Sadly we never got that chance! My condolences to the family and may you find peace in knowing he is now with our lord in Heaven! He served our country and as a police officer! I honor and thank him for his service!

I just learned of Jesse's passing & I'm in disbelief. His mom & my mom were best of friends. I would visit often since he lived two blocks from Mom. We often spoke of how much he missed his mom & all her shenanigans. Rest in peace my dear friend & May the perpetual light shine upon you.

“ Most of us know that Jesse was in the Navy. But the one thing I remember about that Navy experience is his visit to Jerusalem. I picture Jesse in his Navy uniform walking the paths Jesus, our Savior, walked. As Jesse walked: Jesse had thoughts of his mom with her strong faith who planted seeds of faith in his own heart. As he walked and saw holy places and holy things, he selected a wooden bead rosary which he gifted his mom.

May all memories keep our loved ones alive in our hearts until through the Grace of our Savior, we meet again in our heavenly home.

“ He was my second cousin, he said that Saturn had rings around it. I said it was Jupiter. Apparently he's right. R. I. P

“ Hello everyone, first I would like to express my condolences to Jesus' family.

I was deeply saddened to hear of his passing. I had been looking forward to reuniting with him this coming November, and it hurts to know that chance will no longer come. His memory will stay close to my heart, and I will always carry the thought of what it would have meant to see him again.

Though words can never fully ease the pain of loss, I hope you all find comfort in knowing how much he was loved and how fondly he will be remembered. His presence touched the lives of so many, and his spirit continues to live on in the hearts of those who knew him.

Please accept my sincere condolences during this difficult time. My thoughts and prayers are with you and the family as you navigate through grief and honor his memory.

Sincerely from the Valero family in California
