

Jesusita R. Rodriguez

December 18, 1924 - March 5, 2019

Jesusita R. Rodriguez transitioned to her eternal life on March 5, 2019. She was born on December 18, 1924. She lived in service to others, to her family, friends, neighbors, and to God. She was very religious. She was a Guadalupana for 70 years at three different parishes. Every time she moved she made it a point to register with her parish and join the Guadalupanas. She held various offices and supported various projects throughout the years. She left us with a legacy of dedicated love and devotion.

She was definitely the heart of our home. She went out to look for employment when she saw my Dad needed help during times when women were stay-at-home moms. She played a major role in keeping us fed and clothed, making sure everyone had what they needed.

She was intelligent and a leader in her own right. She worked in the garment industry for 35 years, first with Santone Industries and later with Levi Straus. She rose from piece sewing to quality control and even traveled to train at to other Levi plants. She held various positions in her company credit union as well as other organizations she was involved in. She was an honor student at Main High School which later became Fox Tech but had to drop out during the depression to help her family financially. She was always regretted not graduating from high school. So, when the first opportunity came up to get her GED she went to night classes. At the age of 58 she proudly earned her GED. We wish to thank Mrs. Gina Ramirez for the 10 plus years of personal care she provided. You adopted her as your mother and mom adopted you as her daughter. If you asked mom many daughters she had, she would say, "four." To the San Antonio Home Health and Hospice staff and support personnel, thank you for all your care. It was such a relief to know that whatever her needs were you always responded with love and care.

Jesusita id preceded in death by her husband, Joe C. Rodriguez, her son, Antonio Rodriguez, parents, Elois and Carlota Ramirez, sisters, Julia Marruquin, Genoveva Trevino, brothers, Alejandro Ramirez, Alfredo Ramirez, and Elois Ramirez, and granddaughter, Lisa A.
