“ My deepest condolences to the family of Jimmie Lackie. I am sure you have many cherished memories of your lives together to share. Please keep yourself in prayer to the God of all understanding and comfort and he will hear you. Also, share your grief with your family and friends as they grieve with you. Proverbs 17:17 states: “ A true friend shows love at all times And is a brother who is born for times of distress.”. May you find comfort at this difficult time.

“ All my memories of my first cousin once removed - Jimmy Mae Herring Lackie - are so sweet and happy... The family gatherings in Bayside and all times we were able to visit on her trips to Refugio. I'll never forget the wonderful Mexican Food dinner prepared by her beloved Cecil in their home on Savannah and shared with me and 2 of my Our Lady of the Lake classmates...always friendly, generous and gracious. And that quick laugh and sense of humor - unique and so funny. The last time we talked, we shared our mutual feelings: I love you. R.I.P. sweet Jimmy.

“ My thoughts and prayers are with all of you. She was such a wonderful lady we didn't get to visit often but when we did she always welcomed us with open arms. May God bless and comfort all of you in your time of sorrow.

“ Mom, I already miss you but I know you are no longer in pain and struggling. You kept asking for Jesus to take you into his loving arms. And I kept telling you that he would when he was ready. I love you!!!!
