

Jimmie Diane Roberson

November 5, 1948 - February 14, 2026

Diane was a woman of strength, creativity, and deep devotion to her family. Born in Temple, Texas, she was the second of four sisters and carried both responsibility and a spirited spark. As her family lovingly shared, “Diane and Vicky was the middle rebel children out of the four of them.”

She had a natural artistic gift—able to paint flowers, craft wreaths, and create beauty from anything. Her family remembered that “she could create a flower arrangement in nothing flat and it was beautiful.” She loved skiing, trail riding, and always made sure she looked her best.

Family was the center of her world. She cherished time with her children, grandchildren, and great grandchildren, always working to keep peace and connection. As her loved ones said, “she enjoyed being with the family—that was everything to her.”

Diane retired from AT&T in 2004 and spent her later years surrounded by creativity, family, and the simple joys she treasured.

Survived by her children:

Steven (Leanne) Bilbrey

Brandy (Michael) Mitchell

Jason (Shanna) Roberson

Her sisters:

Glenda (Greg) Poth

Vicky (David) Vollmar

Grandchildren:

Jimmie Bilbrey, Shelby Huffnagle, Jason Roberson Jr.,

Drew Roberson, Aislyn Roberson, Annalicia Roberson

Great grandchildren:

Starla Bilbrey, Natalie Faulkner, Levi Faulkner, Alexander Roberson, Aleena

Roberson, Juliana Roberson,

Andrew Roberson, Bertha Roberson.

She is preceded in death by her parents, Charlene Patterson and Joe Montgomery; her husband, Jimmy Frank Roberson; her sister, Cindy Montgomery Harrison; nephews Robert Poth and Colby Potter; and her grandson, Josh Bilbrey.

Her life was a blessing, and her memory will remain a comfort to all who knew her.
